

VILLA HOWDEN

Kingston Beach Golf Club

Located just 10 minutes drive from Villa Howden, Kingston Beach Golf Club has one of the most picturesque outlooks of any golf course in Tasmania. Stretching from the hills at Kingston, the course looks across Browns River and Kingston Beach out to the where the River Derwent empties into Storm Bay.

The staff and members are very welcoming and the clubhouse, dating back to the 1830's, commands a magnificent view across the course. The club has catering and bar facilities and visitors have full use of the locker rooms with showers and toilets.

Open 7 days a week, the club holds competitions on Wednesdays and Saturdays. Booking a round is essential and we can provide this service for you. At the course, clubs are available for hire as are carts and the club's professional can also offer lessons. Dress standards apply.
